

Cold Wave Hits Nation, State Is Warned

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The U.S. Weather Bureau said today that another cold wave is in store for Arkansas tonight.

Minimum temperatures were expected to range from near 10 degrees in the northwest to the low 20s in the southeast.

A few light snow flurries were forecast for the north portion this afternoon.

Forenoon temperatures were in the 20s in the northwest.

In south Arkansas, the rain-swollen Ouachita River was nearly three feet above its flood stage of 26 feet at Camden.

The Kent Road, east of Camden, was under water, and some lowlands had been flooded.

A crest of 30 to 31 feet was due at Camden by Wednesday. No great damage was expected unless the river goes higher.

Snow spread today in the Midwest today in advance of a cold wave.

The snow zone extended from Missouri and Iowa northeastward to Michigan and Ohio.

An unexpected storm dumped 4 inches of snow in Toledo and northwestern Ohio, snarling morning rush hour traffic. Many minor accidents occurred. A 40 m.p.h. speed limit was posted on the western end of the Ohio Turnpike.

Three inches of snow fell in six hours in Burlington, Iowa, and Quincy, Ill. Snow ranged up to 6 inches in northcentral and northeastern Illinois.

Heavy snow was forecast for eastern Illinois, northern Indiana and lower Michigan.

Cold wave warnings were issued for the central section of the country from the Plains region to Texas and Tennessee. Lows of 10 to 2 below zero were expected in the Northern Plains.

Temperatures already had plummeted to —23 in Williston, N.D., —22 in Glasgow, Mont., and —5 in Rapid City, S.D.

Roads were in hazardous condition in much of New England as a result of a freezing drizzle for the third day in a row.

The Pearl River rose to a modern record in Jackson, Miss., in the soggy South. Water covered many of Mississippi's highways.

At least 600 refugees waited for rivers to subside in Rankin County east of Jackson and in the Aberdeen-Columbus district, where the Tombigbee River went over its banks.

The Pearl River is expected to reach a crest Wednesday in Jackson, where about 150 persons have left their homes.

The Red Cross termed Columbus a disaster area and called in relief workers; about 100 had been forced from their homes in that section.

More than 250 persons were routed in Alabama and rivers were expected to continue rising in the central part of the state.

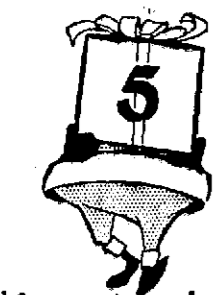

The three-month winter season starts officially at 9:20 p.m. EST Thursday.

Injuries Fatal to Driver of Car

A SARATOGA MAN, LARRY JOE HARWELL, 22, was killed early today when his auto went out of control and plunged into the Hair-Lingo station and business on Highway 47, near the city limits. Both the car and the building were heavily damaged.

U. S. Must Defend Stand on Katanga

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Kennedy administration apparently is going to have to defend in the Senate its support of U.N. action in Katanga.

Although chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., declined any comment, a growing division of opinion among Foreign Relations Committee members and other senators pointed today toward January questioning of Secretary of State Dean Rusk on the explosive Katanga situation.

Fulbright, a candidate for reelection next year, said on a brief Washington visit he was engaged in Arkansas problems and had not been briefed recently on Congo developments. Because of this he would not comment upon them.

Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., a committee member, has been plugging for weeks for an inquiry into the U.N. effort to bring Katanga President Moise Tshombe back into line with the Congo central government. Dodd called a news conference to air further views on the subject.

Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, another Foreign Relations Committee member, said in a separate interview he believes the U.N. forces which have battered their way into Elisabethville, the Katanga capital, have been acting illegally by interfering in the internal affairs of the Congo.

Unlike Dodd, who has praised Tshombe as one of the leading anti-Communists in Africa, Lausche said he was not taking sides in the Katanga president's controversy with Congo Premier Cyrille Adoula. Dodd has said that Adoula's government is subject to strong Communist influences.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., said Monday he is supporting the U.N. action in Katanga because the alternative — "confrontation between the Communist bloc and the free world in a tension spot in the Congo—would represent a grave danger to world peace."

Autopsy Confirms Doctor Drowned

HOPE, Ark. (AP) — Dr. George W. Parsons, 64, a retired Texarkana physician whose body was found in Grassy Lake 14 miles west of here Monday, apparently died by drowning, a pathologist said Monday night after an autopsy. Parsons had practiced medicine in Texarkana for 30 years and had been hunting at a private club near Fulton Sunday and failed to return Sunday night.

Red China Criticizes Invasion

HONG KONG (AP) — Red China's official paper here today criticized Prime Minister Nehru for India's invasion of Goa.

The comment, the first official Chinese Communist reaction to the invasion, was in sharp contrast to the Soviet Union's expressed approval of the Indian action.

It was another example of the growing divergence of views between the Kremlin and Peking.

The paper Ta Kung Pao charged the invasion of Goa was a desperate attempt by Nehru "to regain his sagging prestige among nations of the African-Asian bloc."

The paper did not condemn the invasion as such, in view of communism's basic anticolonialist policy. But Red China's current animosity toward India was reflected in editorial ridicule of Nehru and his motives.

Communist China and India are having a verbal battle over the Chinese-Indian border dispute.

Hospital Grant

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Union County Hospital at El Dorado, Ark., will receive a $773,195 grant from the Health Education and Welfare Department, to help finance construction of a $2,069,950 general hospital. It will have 100 beds.

Hope Star's annual banquet for carrier boys of all newspapers circulating in the Hope trade area will be held at 7:30 tonight (Tuesday) at the main banquet room of the Diamond Cafeteria, with Leonard Ellis, former managing editor and circulation manager of The Star, as speaker.

About 12 Negro carriers will dine with one of the women's groups of Gauchet Chapel Baptist Church, and George Stoughton, assistant Yergor Coach, will be the speaker.

Holiday Is Unhappy for Some

ST. MARY'S, Pa. (AP) — The holiday season will be an unhappy time for many people in this small Elk County community because of the revelation by authorities that three of the town's finance companies are insolvent to the extent of about $3.7 million.

Some 670 of this town's 9,066 residents had invested in the companies and many may lose their life savings.

"It's beyond belief that anything like this could happen to a company so highly regarded for close to 40 years," observed Clarence J. Arnold, who said he will lose about $6,000.

So far, two officials of the firm have been charged with fraud and investigators say more arrests may be made.

The financial collapse is more than a loss of money to Raymond Rupprecht and his brother, A. J. Rupprecht. Raymond lost $7,000 and A. J. undisclosed life savings. Their brother, George, 63, is accused of fraud.

George Rupprecht was president of an organization that controlled all three firms and another company that is in shaky condition. He can't be located.

The other official, Carl J. Gerg, 55, is free on $1,000 bond. He was treasurer of the holding organization.

Authorities said A. J. Rupprecht and Gerg sold some $50,000 in fraudulent securities to 40 persons.

The State Banking Department said the fraud was revealed after investors in one of the companies — Industrial Finance Co. — complained that the firm was unable to honor pledges to redeem preferred stock.

Investigation showed that Industrial Discount Co. and Elk Consumer Discount Co. were in as bad a state as Industrial Finance.

A fourth firm, St. Mary's Finance Co., is not as bad off, but shareholders may lose 50 cents on the dollar.

Saratoga Youth Killed as Car Hits Building

Larry Joe Harwell, aged 22, a resident of Saratoga, was killed about 12:30 a.m. today when the car which he was driving went out of control just inside Hope City limits and crashed into the Hair-Lingo building and station. He was alone.

The Saratoga youth was thrown from the car, a 1958 Chevrolet. The vehicle plunged into two gas pumps, knocking one over and hit both posts holding up the covered front of the building. City Officers Willis and Rowe said the car skidded 60 feet before hitting the post.

Young Harwell had just left Oaks Cafe at a very high rate of speed the investigating officers said. Apparently he never had complete control of the vehicle which veered to the left side of the road, then crossed and hit the building a little less than a block from the cafe.

He was rushed to a local hospital by a Herndon - Connell ambulance where he died only a few minutes after arrival.

There was considerable damage to the station and building and to a small Simco car parked nearby. The Harwell vehicle was practically demolished.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie J. Harwell, Saratoga; two brothers, Almarie Charles Gale Harwell of Elgin, AFB, Fla., and Randal Harwell of Saratoga.

Arrangements will be announced by Herndon-Connell.

Bankruptcy Referee Quits Post

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Le Cazort, 74, federal referee in bankruptcy for the Eastern District of Arkansas since 1937 and a prominent state political figure for years before that, will retire Dec. 31.

He will be succeeded in the $13,750-a-year job by Arnold M. Adams, a Harrison attorney and former assistant state attorney general. He also has been Harrison city attorney and deputy prosecutor for the 14th District.

Arkansas' three federal judges, Gordon E. Young, J. Smith Henley and John E. Miller, announced Cazort's retirement and Adams' appointment Monday.

A referee in bankruptcy presides over petition for bankruptcy filed by both businesses and individuals. He tries to liquidate the assets and pay as large a percentage of the debt as possible. He directs a staff of five, which he appoints.

Cazort, a native of Johnson County, ran for governor in 1924 and placed second in a field of six. He was elected lieutenant governor in 1928 and served three terms. Before that, he served in the House and Senate.

He sponsored an initiated act in 1936 that provided free textbooks for the first eight grades in the public schools. And he also sponsored a constitutional amendment which exempted homesteads from an 8.7 mill state property tax. The tax was later abolished.

Cazort said he will remain in Little Rock. Adams will have his office in Little Rock but will serve the entire state.

Adams is a native of Batesville.

Bond Forfeited for Spa Woman

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The $2,000 bond posted for Mrs. Bonnie Connolly of Hot Springs has been ordered forfeited.

The Arkansas Supreme Court handed down the order Monday. Mrs. Connolly failed to surrender three weeks ago to begin serving a three-year sentence for manslaughter.

She was convicted of the fatal shooting of her husband, Joseph, in Hot Springs in April, 1959.

Alaskan to Arkansas

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — Donald J. Smith has resigned as manager of the government-operated Alaska Railroad to become assistant general manager of the Missouri Pacific Railroad at Little Rock. His resignation will take effect Jan. 12. Smith said he decided to quit because of "the lack of security, pay and expense limitations that go along with governmental appointments."

Indian Invasion Is Complete; Indonesia May Attack Dutch

Asian Nation Set to Invade New Guinea

By K. R. RAMANATH

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — President Sukarno declared today that he has ordered the Indonesian armed forces to be prepared to invade Dutch-held West New Guinea at any time. He also ordered "total mobilization of the Indonesian people."

The spellbinding Indonesian president did not indicate when the invasion would come. Officials in the West fear he may be emboldened by Indian Prime Minister Nehru's easy success against Goa and the other two Portuguese enclaves Indian troops captured today after less than 30 hours of fighting.

Sukarno accused the Dutch of "cheating Indonesia on West Irian," the name by which Indonesia refers to the big island, and ordered his people to smash efforts by the Netherlands to lead West New Guinea down the road of self-determination.

"I order you to wreck the Dutch efforts to set up a Papua puppet state and to hoist the red and white (Indonesian) flag in West Irian," Sukarno told a wildly cheering crowd estimated at one million, in a speech that was broadcast nationally.

"I order total mobilization of the Indonesian people to liberate West Irian from the grip of the Dutch," he said.

The Dutch-administered western half of New Guinea, the world's second-biggest island, changed its name to West Papua, Dec. 1. The name stemmed from the 700,000 Papua tribesmen who inhabit the area.

The change was suggested by the 28-member New Guinea Council, a joint Dutch-Papuan governing council which Indonesia has labeled a puppet government.

About 18,000 Dutch and Eurasians also reside in the western part of the island, a primitive area of hostile jungles and rugged mountains. Australia governs the eastern half of the island. So far the Indonesians have made no claim to it.

"The Dutch promised to recognize Indonesian sovereignty over the whole territory of the former Netherlands East Indies but they only cheated us," Sukarno asserted, referring to the 1949 grant of independence to Indonesia.

West New Guinea was the only part of the Dutch East Indies retained by the Netherlands. The Dutch claim that West New Guinea was a part of the Indies only for administrative purposes and that there are strong ethnic differences between the Papuans and the Indonesians.

Sukarno spoke in the south central Java city of Jogjakarta, the revolutionary capital of the Indonesians.

Worker Appeals ESD Action

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Joe B. Hirschneider, who worked for the state Employment Security Division for 15 years before his job as supply supervisor was suddenly abolished last week, has appealed his discharge to the State Merit System Council.

Hirschneider appealed Monday and a council spokesman said the group would have to meet to consider it.

Hirschneider was released without advance notice. He was one of nine ESD employees subpoenaed last June by the Federal Civil Service Commission to testify about being forced to contribute $50 last year to Gov. Faubus' campaign.

Four of the nine employees who testified are no longer with the agency.

Agreement in Albany May Ease Tension

By DON MCKEE

ALBANY, Ga. (AP) — A biracial agreement has led to an easing of racial tension in this south Georgia city, but a Negro leader says desegregation efforts will continue.

Talks between city officials and Negro leaders Monday resulted in indefinite postponement of trials for more than 700 Negroes arrested last week in a series of marching demonstrations.

Under the agreement, Negro leaders said they would stop the mass demonstrations. But M. S. Page, acting chairman of the Albany movement, said negotiations are to reopen next month on a broad desegregation program.

Page said his group conceded only on the demonstrations and that an economic boycott, already being felt by white merchants, was not discussed.

After the agreement was reached, many of the nearly 400 Negroes still in jail began posting cash bonds or, in the cases of property owners or taxpayers, gaining release on their own signatures.

One of the points of the agreement was police compliance with the Interstate Commerce Commission's order banning segregation in train and bus terminals. Last week's demonstrations started after a group of 11 Negroes and white persons were arrested following their attempt to desegregate the railway terminal.

City officials agreed to meet with Negro leaders on segregation issues after incoming city commissioners take office in January. Page said Police Chief Laurie Pritchett would recommend that the commission give consideration to the Negroes' proposals.

'Peace Loving' Nehru's Army Has No Trouble

By R. SATAKOPAN

BOMBAY, India (AP) — India today claimed complete victory in its lightning invasion of Portugal's three tiny territories on the Indian west coast.

Just 36 hours after Indian forces blitzed into the last footholds of European territory on the subcontinent, a Defense Ministry spokesman announced all fighting had ceased in Goa, Damao and Diu, three little Portuguese pockets totaling 1,537 square miles and about 650,000 people.

Goa's governor general, Manuele Antonio Vassalao Silva, in a balcony speech from his office Monday had said the Portuguese defenders "will resist to the end."

Portuguese troops along the invasion route had boxes of dynamite to blow up all bridges.

The Indian Defense Ministry announced Indian forces lost only eight killed, and a ministry spokesman said he believed Portuguese casualties were also light. He said more than 1,000 Portuguese troops had surrendered.

A report from Belgaum, the Indian command center just outside Goa, said the Indian commander, Lt. Gen. J. N. Chaudhary, hoisted the Indian flag in Nova Goa, the Portuguese colonial capital, about 9 a.m.

The report said a large crowd of Goans cheered as the flag went up and the town of 35,000 was gaily celebrating the end of 4½ centuries of Portuguese rule.

Nova Goa was the last reported pocket of resistance. An Indian spokesman said the invaders met only initial resistance there and after midnight the Portuguese defenders seemed to melt away.

Damao and Diu, which together total only 53 square miles north of Bombay, fell Monday with little or no resistance.

In New York, a Soviet veto killed a Western resolution in the U.N. Security Council calling for the withdrawal of the Indian invaders and negotiations between India and Portugal.

Reflecting the widespread Western outrage at the military action by Prime Minister Nehru, heretofore a chief advocate of peace, chief U.S. Delegate Adlai E. Stevenson charged that India and her supporters were trying to rewrite the U.N. charter to sanction the use of force when it suited their purposes.

"This can only lead to chaos and disintegration of the United Nations," said Stevenson. "Tonight we are witnessing the first act of a drama which could end in its death."

Soviet Delegate Valerian Z. Zorin countered that "there was no invasion."

Man, Son in Three Separate Wrecks

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — In two weeks G. D. Chastain, 53, of Little Rock, and his son have been involved in three separate three-car wrecks, none of which were their fault, police said.

On Dec. 4, Chastain's car was involved in a wreck while he was on his way to work at Little Rock Air Force Base. Damage to his car was estimated at $1,200. He was not hurt.

Last Saturday, his son, Robert D. Chastain, 31, suffered a broken leg and shoulder in a three-car wreck. His car was a total loss.

Sunday, the elder Chastain was en route home from a hospital after a visit with his son, when two other cars crashed into him at an intersection. Chastain again escaped injury, but damages to his car were estimated at $600.

INVADERS — INDIAN TROOPS HAVE INVADDED GOA AND two other small Portuguese enclaves, Diu and Damao, in Indian. Defense Minister V. K. Menon said the Portuguese forces were surrendering with little resistance in Goa, but were carrying out a "scorched earth" policy. Portugal announced its troops "entered into defensive actions," and reported Indian Air Force planes bombed Goa's airport and Naval school. FAA Chief Is Fined $50
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Aviation Agency has fined its chief $50 for a piloting goof.

FAA Administrator N. E. Halaby said today he has been served notice of the fine for brushing wing tips with an airliner at Washington National Airport Nov. 9.

Halaby told a news conference he thoroughly approves of the disciplinary action taken against him by the enforcement division of the agency he heads. He added, though, that this is the only accident he has ever had in 28 years of flying.

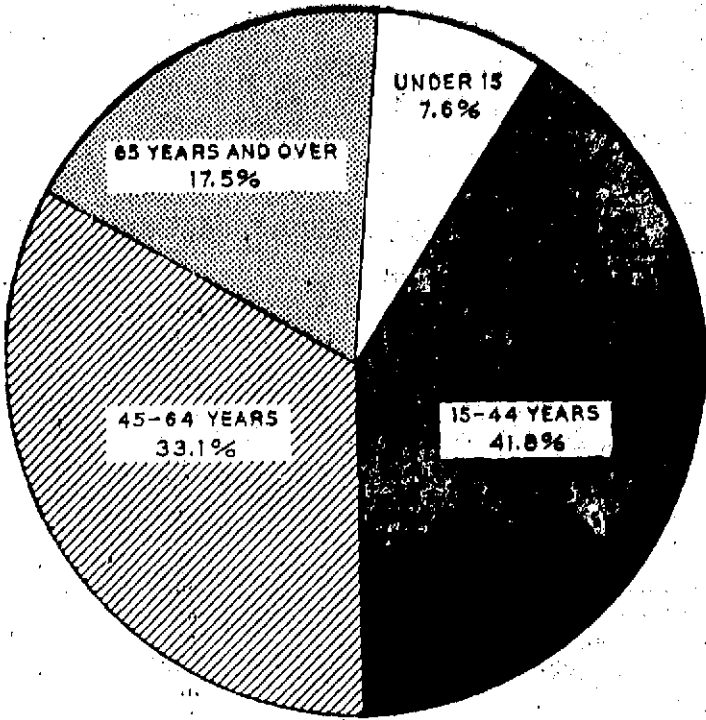

The accident occurred when the plane Halaby was piloting moved ahead of the United Air Lines plane to take off.

Halaby said the report of the wing-tip brushing went up through channels.

It was prepared by an FAA employee at the airport. "He is still there and will remain there," Halaby assured the reporters, smiling.

Bulldozer Rescues Trapped Dog
By BURL OSBORNE

GILBERT, W. Va. (AP)—Brownie, a 3-year-old rabbit hound with a master who cares, settled down today to replacing the 25 pounds he lost during 50 days entrapment in a caved-in mine shaft.

A bulldozer late Monday uncovered a hole leading into the shaft into which the dog disappeared Juneau, snow ..... 10 5 .01 almost two months ago.

Brownie, with protruding ribs and eyes bleary in the daylight he hadn't seen, for so long, clambered into the arms of equally bleary-eyed Richard Hatfield, 21, his master.

Until a week ago, Richard's struggle to free his trapped pet had been a lonely and seemingly hopeless one. But as word spread, his neighbors made it a community project.

Richard had tried lassoing Brownie through a narrow crevice; he had tried luring him into a sack; but nothing worked.

For 18 days after Brownie disappeared while on a hunting trip with Richard he was thought dead. But whatever the dog chased into that narrow slit—probably a rabbit—seemed to have provided him with enough food to keep him going for a while.

Brownie's whimpering and barking was heard by one of Richard's numerous cousins in the small community of Hampden. Tommy Kennedy told Richard he had heard Brownie bark. That was 32 days ago.

When Charles Dillon, one of Richard's neighbors, crawled into a narrow break in the stony mountainside, Brownie was at first immobile and seemingly blind. After he adjusted to the fading daylight outside, he trotted out to his master.

Richard had visited the break every day since the dog had been located, dropping food down the

Getting One to School Proves Costly

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—A Long Island school district was under state orders today to provide transportation for a pupil to a parochial school 10 miles away by ferry and bus or 50 miles away by highway.

The district said the transportation would cost $5,000 and require increased local property tax.

Commissioner of Education James E. Allen Jr. said Greenport Union Free School District No. 10 in Suffolk County should pay reasonable costs of the transportation of Patricia Cooper, 14, from Greenport to Sacred Heart Academy in Sag Harbor.

The Greenport district had turned down a petition by Mrs. Giacinta T. Cooper, mother of Patricia, for transportation costs.

Allen said if the district had insufficient funds, the Board of Education is authorized to raise the slit to his pet. Water was plentiful inside the shaft.

Even so, Brownie's ribs were in plain view when he came out. His weight dropped from 45 to 20 pounds. But his tail wagged.

January Draft Calls for 108

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Selective Service headquarters today announced an Arkansas draft call for January of 108 men.

This compares with a January, 1961, quota of 49 and a December call of 115.

In order to fill the January call, approximately 150 men will be ordered for induction.

In addition, some 800 men will receive preinduction examinations

Ola Issues Bonds for Waterworks

OLA, Ark. (AP)—The city of Ola has issued $146,000 in bonds to finance improvement of the city's water works system.

C. R. George, attorney for the city, announced today that the bonds were purchased by the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency at Fort Worth, Tex. They included $37,000 in tax bonds and revenue bonds of $109,000.

Revenue from the bond sale will be used to dam Keeland Creek near Ola and install a new filtration system.

Bids on the project will be taken in January.

The president, Mrs. Ray Allen, opened the meeting and the club collect was repeated. A brief business session was conducted, followed with an interesting program presented by Mrs. J. O. Luck. She discussed trees and customs related to them and held a unique quiz on the subject.

A Christmas tree and a decorated mantle were among the seasonal additions to the attractive setting for the party. Gifts were exchanged and a dessert plate with coffee were served to 16 members and one guest, Mrs. Ed Russell of Lexington, Ky.

Bridge Club Meets Friday

After a Christmas luncheon at the Diamond, Dec. 15, a local G. Coop and other relatives.

DOROTHY DIX

Willful Teen-Agers Turning Mother's Hair Gray

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: I can't cope with my three children. I've done my best to rear them as respectable, God-fearing, citizens aware of life's responsibilities.

Our elder son, now going on 18, plans to marry in his last year of high school. I ask him how he will support his wife. He says South Temple, Salt Lake City, they'll both work. "At what," I ask, "when neither of you has ever worked before?" A slam of the door is his answer.

The next boy does as he pleases too. If I attempt to correct him, he leaves home and comes back when he pleases. My third child, a 14-year-old girl, is in trouble. I guess that's my fault for I let this young fellow stay at home. A nice boy of decent family. Young folks being what they are today, that was tempting fate. He's just turned 18. My girl is too young to marry.

These problems are too much for me. It's no use talking to my husband. He simply shrugs his shoulders, says, "Bringing up the kids is your job," and walks out. You're the only one I know of to turn to. Help! —At My Wits' End, Utah.

Dear Wits' End: Tell your husband that the welfare of the children is as much his responsibility as yours. Call a family council of war and insist that he sit in on it. Say that obviously, try as you will, you've failed somewhere. Ask the children to co-operate with you and their father, for their sakes, as well as their parents'.

Impress upon them that you want, above all, only their happiness. The road they are taking won't lead to it. If necessary, the law will back you up for they are still minors and as such answerable to you and their father. Your bridge club assembled in the home of Mrs. H. C. Whitworth for its regular meeting.

Among pretty Christmas decorations, the two tables of players enjoyed the afternoon. Besides members, they also included Mrs. K. E. Ambrose. High score prizes were won by Mrs. R. E. Cooper and Mrs. C. C. Lewis. The hostess served light refreshments.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Lawson of Greenville, S.C. announce the arrival of their first child. It is an eight pound boy who has been named Jonathan Mark. Mr. and Mrs. Perry Moscos are the maternal grandparents and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lawson of Ruston, La., are the paternal grandparents.

Coming and Going

Mrs. Cline Franks, Mrs. Jim Robertson and Janet all of Fayetteville, were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Dunn and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Keith and Mrs. an dMrs. Charles Tutt and two children all of Dallas, were the weekend guests of Mrs. E. the Diamond, Dec. 15, a local G. Coop and other relatives.

Sergeant to Get to See His Brother

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Sgt. James P. Sargent, whose active life pretty well blew up in a demolition accident at Camp Roberts last Nov. 9, will see his brother, Leonard, Friday for the first time since 1953.

The 37-year-old Sargent, partly blind in both eyes, partly deaf and with amputated left arm and leg, is the Letterman General Hospital patient getting the 6th Army's Operation Jingle Bells Christmas present this year.

This is the first time that a brother and not a mother will be the present in the 11 years since Operation Jingle Bells was started child's toes blistered, the mother bought her shoes. This raised Cain. Her husband struck her across the mouth, causing it to bleed. She has had many headaches since.

At the beginning she and her husband really had to scrimp but now that he's got his doctor's degree and is making money there's no longer the necessity. He is fine until expenses are mentioned then becomes violent. Surely there must be some way of appealing to a man of his intelligence. Divorce isn't the answer for they love one another. —Devoted Sister.

Dear Devoted: Since your brother-in-law is so intelligent, he might be reached either through the family doctor, or a blood relative. Tell your sister I advise her to have a frank talk with one, or the other. A psychiatrist may be the answer. The sooner your sister acts the better. Stay out of the picture yourself.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine care of this newspaper. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "How To Get Along With An Adolescent."

Counterfeit Ring Is Broken Up

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—Federal authorities in St. Louis report they have broken up a two-man counterfeit operation and seized $37,000 in "very deceptive" bogus bills.

The counterfeiters had passed about $7,500 in phony $5, $10 and $20 bills, authorities said. Garry Stigall, head of the St. Louis office of the Secret Service, identified the counterfeiters as Paul Eugene Kesterson, 43, and Joseph Ziglin, 51.

Secret Service agents arrested Kesterson Friday night in Clayton near a title company where he worked and where he printed the bills, Stigall said.

Agents found $2,000 in completed bills in the shop and two of the photo plates which Kesterson, a printer, said he used in making the last batch of bills. Ziglin was arrested at a filling station he operated in St. Louis, where $35,000 in counterfeit bills was seized.

By an Act of Congress, Ark. became a territory March 2, 1819.

during the Korean War.

Sargent, who was born in Mattoon, W.Va., March 1, 1924, was left an orphan in childhood and was raised by his brother.

James went to work in the coal mines at 16 and entered the service in 1943. He got the Bronze Star for the New Guinea and Luzon campaigns and served two tours in Germany after the war.

A career soldier, educated by the Army, he became a demolition instructor and was teaching a class on the range when a defective fuse exploded prematurely.

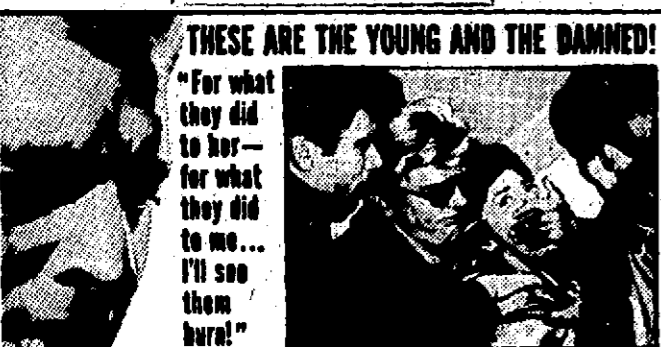

Operation Jingle Bells is put on by Headquarters Co., Special Troops, 6th Army, which has raised nearly $600 to pay for Leonard Sargent's flight from Mattoon, his return and his expenses while here.

Sgt. Sargent will be officially notified of his selection Tuesday by Maj. Gen. Jack W. Schwartz, Letterman commander.

Leonard Sargent will arrive Thursday. The reunion in Sargent's hospital room will be at 2 p.m. the following day.

Rook Leads State Over Ottawa

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Freshman Jerry Rook scored 23 points in leading Arkansas State to a 60-50 basketball victory over Kansas Conference champion Ottawa University Monday night.

Rook, All-America high school star who set a state Class A tournament scoring record of 144 points last year, paced a rather shaking shooting game in which the Indians hit only 30 per cent of their field goal attempts.

But Ottawa hit the same percentage and Arkansas State got 18 of 25 free throws and beat Ottawa on rebounds to swing the victory.

Tom Kinder scored 16 points to lead Ottawa.

Arkansas State is 5-2 and mets Illinois Wesleyan here Thursday night.

Unbeaten Cage Ranks Start Thinning Out

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ
Associated Press Sports Writer

The ranks of collegiate basketball's unbeaten teams dwindled today as three of the nation's top five teams tasted defeat for the first time and several other powers had their untarnished records spoiled.

Cincinnati, ranked second in the weekly Associated Press poll, lost to Wichita 52-51 Monday night to set the tempo for a night of form reversals.

Providence, No. 3 nationally, fell to unbeaten DePaul 60-63 and fifth-ranked West Virginia was spoiled by Duke 69-65.

Arizona State, tied for 10th in the ratings, dropped its first game in six starts, to Indiana 94-88. Temple suffered its first setback, to Kentucky 78-55 after winning five.

Two of the top ten teams stayed undefeated. First-ranked Ohio State whipped St. Louis 61-49 for its sixth straight and Kansas State, No. 4, breezed to its sixth in a row, 59-43, over Arizona.

New York University (6-0) beat Notre Dame 81-73, Utah State (7-0) rolled over San Francisco State and Illinois (5-0) upended Xavier of Ohio 81-69.

Lanny Van Eman's 15-foot jump shot with three seconds remaining gave Wichita its one-point squeaker over Cincinnati and snapped the defending NCAA champion Bearcats' 27-game winning streak—longest among major colleges. The victory was the Shockers' seventh in eight starts.

The loss gave Cincinnati a 5-1 record.

Van Eman sank seven field goals in the last eight minutes. The 5-11 senior shared scoring honors with Cincinnati's big Paul Hogue, each with 19 points.

Providence, the National Invitation Tournament winner last March, lost for the first time in six outings as DePaul boosted its record to 6-0. Dick Cook and M. C. Thompson sparked the Demos to their 19th consecutive home court victory.

Duke, in extending its record to 7-1, handed West Virginia its first defeat, after six triumphs. The Iron Dukes, with all of their starters playing the entire game, jolted West Virginia on the Mountaineers' floor. Jeff Mullins and Art Heyman led the Duke attack with 25 and 24 points.

Ohio State experienced little difficulty with St. Louis in enhancing its No. 1 rating. All-America Jerry Lucas paved the way with 20 points and John Havlicek contributed 17 as the Buckeyes bolted to a 32-19 halftime bulge.

Elsewhere on the basketball beat: Billy McGill clicked for 27 points as Utah dominated California 64-58; Oklahoma State drubbed Tulsa 81-57; SMU spanked Alabama 71-66; Mississippi outlasted Louisiana Tech 68-64; Oregon State trounced Stanford 55-49; Iowa State beat Drake 59-30; Iowa ripped Los Angeles State 82-72; Michigan State downed South Carolina 99-91; Maryland romped over Virginia 91-70; Bradley bested Minnesota 80-47 and Air Force shaded Brigham Young 68-66.

Education Expense Has Doubled

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas' education expenditure growth during the past decade is second only to that of Mississippi, the state Education Department reports.

Officials said Saturday Arkansas' budget for the 1961-62 fiscal year is 107.2 per cent higher than during fiscal 1952-53.

The department estimates that during the current year the state will collect approximately $106,400,000 with $51,500,000 slated for the schools.

This figures at 52.7 per cent of the money collected going for education and compares to $24,437,326 spent during fiscal 1952-53.

Officials said Arkansas has risen from eighth to seventh in the ratio of teachers' salaries and per capita income.

But the state remains 49th, just above Mississippi, in the amount spent per pupil for education.

Heritage on Sugar Bowl Winning Side

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP) —

There's going to be more than a little Arkansas heritage on the Alabama side of the field when the two teams meet in the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans on Jan. 1.

And if Alabama wins, it may well be those with Arkansas blood who do the Porkers in.

If it hadn't been for a recruiting trip into Arkansas more than 30 years ago, some of the faces on the Alabama side on New Year's Day might be different.

It was back in 1931 when Alabama Coach Hank Crisp went into Arkansas seeking football talent for an Alabama football machine that was beginning to shift into high gear.

He brought back a lanky end named Paul Bryant.

Bryant played right end on the Alabama team that went through the 1934 season undefeated and whipped Stanford 29-13 in the 1935 Rose Bowl game.

Today he's the head coach of his Alma Mater's team, leading it from the football doldrums of five years ago to the national championship it won in the Associated Press rankings this year.

HOURS TO KILL

Chapter XXXII

Margaret told Cornelia: "Do not worry, I'll take care of everything here," and unaccounted miles away in another state Cornelia said goodbye and the receiver went down.

It seemed incredible that the house should be so quiet and unchanged, the dining room full of silky light and shadow, the living room a deeper tunnel of gold and dark. The headed peacocks on the mantel, the seagulls glimmering in two acres of crystal on the desk, did not know or care that Philip was dead.

He had drunk the cocktail — poisoned or drugged — that he had mixed for Cornelia—how had that happened?—and then he had been seized by a cramp in the pool. He must have known at the last that Cornelia was going to let him die. It would have seemed to him monstrously unfair and impossible, in spite of what he had planned for her, that she should simply go through floundering motions instead of calling for help.

He must have intended Cornelia to drown—and what a daring, perhaps a disarmingly bold plan that had been. It would certainly be brought out that she had been a strong swimmer, and what man in his right mind would have chosen that method, particularly when, alone with her in a car for days, he had had countless opportunities? And he must have covered himself in the event of an autopsy on Cornelia. Margaret could not imagine how, except that his job gave him access to all kinds of experimental drugs.

Margaret walked the length of the living room, into the hall, opened Hilary's door with a silent swiftness.

Hilary was shamming sleep, so expertly that the mind recoiled at the mountainous task of confronting her with having listened in on the extension. But nobody, thought Margaret, gazing at her in the dim light from her own bathroom across the hall, certainly not Hilary, slept so neatly, breathed so evenly, was so perfectly composed as to brows and lips. Dreadfully, wooden little Mrs. Foale reposed on the pillow beside her head. The painted face could not be said to sleep, because the crude long-oval eyes, one lower than the other, stared empty up into the dark; the primitive mouth seemed stretched, in this dim light, into the grimace usually connected with death by strychnine.

Margaret closed the door with a sense of quiet horror, put her hands briefly and coolly against her feverish face, and went into her own room.

How was it that the very air testified to recent tenancy? Was there an actual if tiny stir left, or simply an imprint of curiosity, of alien feet on the rugs, an alien stare bringing subtle life to silent beds, bureaus, curtains?

Margaret did not at the moment care. She was possessed by two immediate needs: to make sure that Hilary, listening on the extension, had not looked around for envelopes to inspect and perhaps pocket; after that to put her sick aching body to bed and plunge the memory of Cornelia's voice, clear, deliberate, into forgetting sleep.

She moved toward the bed lamp, and stopped in her tracks. That was not the familiar shadow of the standlamp in the far corner. It was a figure, a woman, still as the paint on the walls, waiting to see what she would do. There was only a bulk of skirt, shabby even in outline, and some sort of headscarf. A very faint crisp scent, not noticeable except to newly, sharply edged nerves, was on the air.

Margaret had only checked herself for a brief second that sounded her own head like a clash of cymbals. Plummet into the bathroom and lock the door? No there was Hilary. Rub her eyes as though she were blind and inattentive with sleep, saunter toward the other bed—no one could know which bed she slept in—and the telephone extension on the table there. Start unbuttoning her sweater obliviously as she went, and then snatch up the receiver, because danger hung far heavier on the air than scent.

No. None of these ideas seemed good. None would work. She was helpless. Someone was in the house.

Above all, seem not to know who stood there, shorn of her wasp-like slenderness and delicacy, become suddenly a blunt instrument. Forgetting the scent that was as habitual as her tweeds and her pride.

Margaret moved, one foot after another. She hadn't stared at the corner; she had known in an immeasurably small flicker of time. She undid the bottom button of her sweater and then the next, and all the time, idly, chest bursting tight, she was getting closer to the telephone. Almost beside it, she bent and turned back the bedspread. Her hand flashed out, and the shadow in the corner said softly and sharply, "Don't touch that!"

Court Upholds Divorce Decision

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court upheld today a divorce granted Wesley Anderson, a Lawrence County contractor and lumber dealer, from his wife.

The opinion by Justice Jim Johnson also approved a property division settled by Chancellor P.S. Cunningham.

Mrs. Leona Anderson, in an appeal of the divorce decree, denied the couple had agreed on a property settlement or that her husband had grounds for divorce.

Rusk Calls in Indian Envoy

Albany Tries to Settle Race Trouble

By DON MCKEE

ALBANY, Ga. (AP)—A grassroots effort was launched today to solve this embattled south Georgia city's bitter segregation controversy with a minimum of outside help.

Under discussion in biracial talks was a proposal to ease up for 6 days the integration struggle, which has landed more than 700 Negroes in jail within a week.

Prominent in the deliberations was Marion S. Page, local Negro leader who said he and his associates welcome outside help but "as of now, we need no help."

He and two Negro lawyers, C. B. King of Albany and Donald L. Hollowell of Atlanta, went into conference with Mayor Asa D. Kelley and Police Chief Laurie Pritchett after the mayor had conferred with members of the city council.

One suggestion was that all except 11 of the 400 Negroes remaining in jail be released and their trials be delayed for two months while down-to-earth attempts are made to resolve the entire dispute.

The Indian move to force settlement of its long-standing effort to gain sovereignty over the three Portuguese enclaves on the west coast of India.

pute. The 11 not included in the proposal are "Freedom Riders" whose arrest precipitated mass demonstrations.

Officials viewed with obvious favor a position Page has taken for local determination of the issues.

At a news conference in Atlanta, Gov. Ernest Vandiver charged today that outside agitators connected with organizations having a subversive background were responsible for the Albany demonstrations.

He said this information had been transmitted to Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy by Mayor Kelley, who provided Kennedy with six names.

"We have information that six outside agitators were sent into Albany several weeks ago to stir up trouble and they are still there," Vandiver said, "they have been connected with organizations which have been designated as subversive."

The demonstrations were in protest of segregation in general as well as the arrest of eight outsiders and three local residents in the rider display.

Flowers Dies

MARIANNA, Ark. (AP)—Flavio Clayton Flowers, 56, father of Mississippi All-America football fullback Charley Flowers, died at his home Monday. He was a funeral director and a native of Laurel, Miss. His son was named All-America in 1959 and now plays for the San Diego Chargers.

President Returns to Washington

By FRANCES LEWINE

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President Kennedy plans to return to work today despite the discomfort of a heavy cold and ear ache he developed during his weekend trip to Latin America.

The chief executive, after resting in bed and soaking up some Florida sun, scheduled a morning departure in his Air Force jet to fly back to Andrews Air Force Base and his desk at the White House.

His condition was reported much improved after medication and rest in bed and sun, said Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary.

On the President's business calendar was a 4 p.m. meeting with the National Security Council at the White House.

Despite his discomfort, Kennedy expects to hold a news conference in Washington Wednesday and to go to Bermuda Thursday for talks with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Salinger said the President spent part of Monday in bed and part outdoors in the sun at the oceanfront estate where he and his family are staying. The Palm Beach weather was balmy with temperature in the 80s.

The President felt the cold com-

Lowdown on City, County Government

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—A

University of Arkansas booklet giving the inside on city and county government financing will be distributed next week by the university.

The 49-page booklet, compiled by Dr. Henry M. Alexander, professor of government at the university, was financed by the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency in conjunction with the city of Hot Springs and Garland County.

The manual lists all sources of funds legally available to municipalities and counties as well as for school and improvement districts.

It will be distributed by the Arkansas Municipal League.

ing on Friday at San Juan, Puerto Rico, the first stop on his 5,700-mile trip to Latin America. It developed en route. The swift changes in altitude and pressure during the jet airplane takeoffs and landings gave him a severe earache in addition.

Mrs. Kennedy, who suffered no ill effects from the grueling Latin American trip, expects to remain in Palm Beach throughout the Christmas-New Year's holiday.

The President plans to return to Palm Beach in time to spend Christmas with his wife and two children, Caroline, 4, and John Jr., 1.

Three Escape Draw County Jail

MONTICELLO, Ark. (AP)—

Sheriff Jack Towler said today three prisoners escaped from Draw County jail between 3 p.m. Sunday and 8 a.m. today.

Towler said the prisoners, two white men and a Negro, escaped after breaking the lock on their fourth floor cell.

They were identified as David

Dye, 25, and Richard Kelley, 17, charged with burglary and grand larceny; and Joseph Curtis, a 35-year-old Negro, accused of raping a young girl.

Towler said Curtis was recently returned to the jail after undergoing a mental examination at the State Hospital in Little Rock.

The sheriff said he last saw the men when he took them food Sunday afternoon and discovered they were missing when he brought their breakfast today.
